

I am vehemently opposed to the FCC revoking law prohibiting a company from owning both a TV station and newspaper in the same geographic region. It is especially onerous for the FCC to be considering this action at a time when Americans have their eyes riveted elsewhere. How ironic for Americans to be fighting overseas to protect our freedoms, while on the homefront our government agencies spirit those same freedoms away, hoping that no one will ever notice the difference. Do not repeal the rules.